About the Seminar

Travel has evolved from a survival necessity to a venture influenced by various factors. India's diverse geography and rich history make it a key tourism destination, especially for major religions. As the fourth largest economy, India has significant potential in the tourism sector. However, rapid industrialization and urbanization lead to challenges like environmental issues, particularly in Uttarakhand and Himachal Pradesh. To promote sustainable tourism and protect cultural heritage, legislative and judicial actions are essential. In light of the tourism sector's growth, the Department of History at Doctor Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyala, Sagar, Madhya Pradesh, will host a national seminar on 'Revisiting the Travelogue of Tourism in India: Trends, Challenges, Prospects & Management' from February 24-25, 2026.
