Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya

Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar (A Central University), formerly, University of Saugar, was established on 18th July 1946 by Dr. Sir Hari Singh Gour (Nov. 26, 1870 – Dec. 25, 1949) by his lifetime savings. This 18th University of India and the oldest and the biggest University of Madhya Pradesh has perhaps the singular distinction of being founded by the munificence of a single person's hard-earned money of about two crores of rupees. Apart from being a great jurist and legal luminary par excellence, he was a great Patriot, Philanthropist, Educationist and Social Reformer.

It has 36 University teaching departments (number keeps adding) 11 schools and 19 affiliated colleges covering various districts of M.P. There are 4 hostels for boys (940 seats) and two hostels for girls. State Bank of India. Post office, STD booth, Employment and Guidance Bureau, 3 canteens including fully furnished Indian Coffee House (ICH) and a shopping complex provide auxiliary services in the campus. The Jawaharlal Nehru Library of the University has more than 4,00,000 books.

Department of Mathematics & Statistics

The Department of Mathematics & Statistics was established with the very inception of the University in the year of 1946. The department offers Ph.D., M.Sc. (Mathematics), B.Sc. It has highly qualified faculty members actively engaged in teaching, research, continuing education programs.
