ABOUT THE FILM

Based on a combination of true stories and actual findings, the movie aims at showing the struggles of a young girl to study and also enable other girls of her conservative village to be allowed to study.

The film is shot in Bhuj and across the grandeur of the Rann of Kutch.

The film aims at educating the audience that even in 2018 there is an appalling amount of odd cases who are not allowed to study due to the patriarchal rules of our society.

Intended for an audience of all ages and a film run around 120 minutes, it has the pouring sand of feelings of emotions, message and some moving music
