

Short Term Course
on
“Applications of Software in Day-to-Day Trading”
(5 th June,2017 3 rd July,2017 every year during semester break)

Course Coordinators : Dr.Ram Kumar Pathak, Patron : Prof. D.K.Nema, Head

The Commerce Lab, Department of Commerce, Dr. H. S. G. University, Sagar with its available resources, organises a three weeks/One Month short term training program for its students(B.Com./M.Com./Ph.D.) on a regular basis during semester break every year since its year of establishment 2017.

The course covers Basic of ICT tools and Techniques : Fundamental Computer literacy, Communication skills using Word processing, Research and Business Data analysis using Spreadsheet, presentation techniques and Computer Accounting using Tally ERP 9.

At the end of the course the Department leaves no stone unturned to organize campus placement (online/offline) for participants’.

The Department of Commerce organizes such activities on a regular basis for the benefit of students of B.Com., M.Com and in-house and outside Research Scholars. Computer Lab regularly engaged in organising various courses, even in COVID-19 pandemic period on ICT Literacy, Computer Accounting, Web Development, Google Tools, Research Data Analysis using different latest tools and techniques apart from various other emerging ICT tools.