This report outlines the key highlights of a comprehensive lecture series on "Achieving Career Goals." The lecture aimed to provide participants with valuable insights and strategies to successfully navigate their career paths. The sessions covered a diverse range of topics, focusing on empowering individuals to set clear and achievable career goals, identify their strengths and passions, and develop actionable plans to reach their desired destinations. Participants gained a deeper understanding of various career options, professional development opportunities, and the importance of continuous learning. The lectures also emphasized the significance of networking, mentorship, and effective communication in advancing one's career.

Objectives:

CG01¹: Empower students with knowledge to make informed decisions about their academic pursuits and future career paths in Commerce.

CG02: Provide comprehensive information about different career options within the Commerce field.

CG03: Enhance students' understanding of the job market trends and potential growth prospects in Commerce-related industries.

CG04: Emphasize the importance of skill development and continuous learning for career success.

The session commenced with the ceremonial lighting of a lamp before Goddess Saraswati and Doctor Harisingh Gour. Prof. J.K. Jain, the Moderator and Head of the Department of Commerce, warmly welcomed all attendees and introduced the esteemed Resource Person, Prof. G.C.R. Jaiswal. With great enthusiasm, he addressed the gathering, providing a brief overview of the session and highlighting its invaluable significance.

Before delving into the formal discussion, Prof. Jaiswal, the counsellor, implied that the students should think about their preferences with a prime focus on what they relish doing in life. Emphasising that the process of determining a lifetime career goal is not rushed, he emphasised the importance of self-evaluation and iterative refinement before pursuing a specific path. In the present environment of integrated options, having knowledge about the available choices is crucial for learners in their decision-making process and for enhancing their knowledge, leading to intellectual growth and lifelong learning. To promote this, the Government introduced the National Education Policy 2020, aiming to break free from narrow thinking and integrate education with modern ideas of the 21st century.

Moving further, Prof. Jaiswal shared his extensive knowledge and insights from his years of experience in the field of Commerce. He guided the students on relevant courses that could complement their graduation and prepare them to excel in the competitive job market. He also highlighted that India, with its ancient educational heritage, had a concept of education encompassing different arts and fields. Education was considered multi-dimensional and multi-sectoral. Historical examples like Nalanda and Taxila showcased India as a "Vishwaguru" (world teacher) in terms of education. Drawing from the ancient Gurukul tradition, Prof. Jaiswal emphasized that learning was not confined to a teacher-centred approach but involved collaborative learning among students and teachers. This fostered an environment of knowledge exchange where students became co-creators, developing innovative and creative solutions to problems, instilling the spirit of lifelong learning.

In closing remarks, Prof. Jaiswal brought attention to the remarkable progress in gender representation in national and international spheres. He highlighted the substantial increase in the number of women entering the workforce and their significant achievements in various fields, such as politics, business, and entertainment. The mention of the increasing representation of women in prominent roles served as an inspirational reminder that talent and dedication are not bound by gender, and that diversity and inclusivity are essential for a thriving and progressive society.

Moving towards end of the session, a significant portion of the session was dedicated to a question-and-answer segment where students had the chance to interact directly with the experts and clarify their doubts and concerns related to career choices and planning.

The interactive career counselling session came to a successful conclusion, leaving a lasting positive impact on all the participating students. Prof. J.K. Jain, the Moderator and Head of the Department of Commerce, on behalf of the department, warmly expressed gratitude to Prof. Jaiswal for his significant contribution to the session. In acknowledgment of Prof. Jaiswal's expertise and dedication, Prof. J.K. Jain honoured him with a shawl and a shریف, symbolising respect and appreciation. Furthermore, a memento was presented to Prof. Jaiswal as a token of gratitude for his invaluable and inspiring insights during the session. The session concluded with everyone standing together to respectfully sing the national anthem, symbolizing unity and pride in the country.

The interactive session received appreciation and praise from all participants, citing the following outcomes:

उन्होंने कहा जीवन में जब हम अपने से उच्च स्तर के व्यक्तियों को देखते हैं तो पाते हैं कि उन्होंने बहुत संघर्ष किया है जिसका परिणाम हम सब प्राप्त कर रहे हैं। यदि नई पीढ़ी अपने समय का सदैव सदुपयोग कर शिक्षा के क्षेत्र में उच्च नैतिक मूल्यों के साथ अध्ययन एवं मनन का कार्य करती है तो उसे भी अपनी अगली पीढ़ी के लिए छोड़ जाने के लिए अनेक अवसर प्राप्त होते हैं। उन्होंने बताया कि विक्रम साराभाई और पूर्व राष्ट्रपति प्रो. अब्दुल कलाम के व्यक्तित्व को इसलिए जाना जाता है कि उन्होंने अपने जीवन के संपूर्ण

आयामों पर बहुत मेहनत और लगन के साथ कार्य किया है। अतिथि व्याख्यान के तहत विद्यार्थियों ने अनेक विषयों पर अपने प्रश्न रखे। अनिकेत कुमार राय ने पूछा कि वह अपने उद्देश्य का निर्धारण करने में संकोच करता है ऐसी स्थिति में

उसे क्या करना चाहिए? इसके जवाब में प्रो. जायसवाल ने बताया कि हमें कभी भी यह नहीं सोचना चाहिए कि हम कभी असफल होंगे। हमें हमेशा अपने लक्ष्य को केंद्र में रखकर कार्य करना चाहिए।
