

ABOUT THE BOOK

Women entrepreneurship is an integral part of human resource development. The development of women entrepreneurship is very meagre in India in urban and rural areas. It is specifically very low in village areas. Entrepreneurship among women has been a recent concern. Women have become aware of their existence their rights and their work situation. However, women of middle class are not too eager to alter their roles in fear of social backlash. The progress is visible upon class families in urban cities.

Women Empowerment Through Women Entrepreneurship in India

Dr. G.M. Dubey & Poonam Mishra

Entrepreneurship can be good medium of empowerment of women because it provides many chances to women to work as per their own choice. Entrepreneurship of Women development is an essential part of human resource. Compared to other countries the development of women entrepreneurship is very low in India, especially in the rural areas. However, women of middle class are not too eager to alter their role in fear of social backlash. The progress is more visible amongst upper class families in urban cities.

This paper focuses on women empowerment through women entrepreneurship. Present study is conducted to analyze the contribution by women entrepreneurs in economic development of nation and also to find out the current problems, which they are facing in their businesses.
