

Report of International Webinar on Recent Trends in Algebraic & Differential Geometry held at Department of Mathematics & Statistics, Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar (M.P.), on 15-16
June, 2020

Two days “International Webinar on Recent Trends in Algebraic & Differential Geometry” was held during June 15-16, 2020 at the Department of Mathematics & Statistics, Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar-470 003, India. The symposium gathered a wide range of academicians like faculty, research scholars and students from all over the world through Google Meet. The objective of this symposium was to provide an opportunity for young faculties & research scholars and faculties to interact with leading researchers in working in mathematical sciences.

The webinar resulted in fruitful discussions of participants with the eminent Mathematicians. The invited speakers enlightened the audience with the abstract and applicable aspect of the mathematical Sciences.

Prof. Ramesh Sharma (University of New Haven, USA), Prof. Abdoul Salam Diallo (Universite Alioune Diop De Bambey, Senegal), Prof. Bankteshwar Tiwari (Banaras Hindu University, India), Prof. R.K. Nagaich (Punjabi University, India), Prof. Shyamal Kumar Hui (University of Burdwan, India) were presented their plenary and invited talks. Apart from lectures, some few selected research papers have been presented by faculty and research scholars. Total 212 participants were present virtually from many corners of the world.
