

Cultural activities by Department of Psychology

During Mental Health Awareness Week (October 09-15,2016) the department organized a cultural program which included Folk dance and drama on the theme “Breaking Gender Bias” and a Rangoli making competition . Twelve Undergraduate and Postgraduate students participated in the competition. First and second prizes were awarded to the students.

(Prof. A. D. Sharma)

Head, Department of Psychology