

Cultural activities by Department of Psychology

On the occasion of “World Mental Health Day” (10 October 2017) the department organized “Mental Health Awareness Rally” to spread awareness among students and others. The rally marched through the whole university campus along with undergraduate and postgraduate students, faculty members and research scholars of the department.

(Prof. A. D. Sharma)

Head, Department of Psychology