

Cultural activities by Department of Psychology

An online debate on the theme “Professional ethics: A necessary skill in today’s Work from Home culture” was organized by the department on the occasion of World Mental Health Day (10 October 2020). Thirty-two Undergraduate and Postgraduate students participated in the competition which was moderated by Research Scholars and Faculty of the Department. First and second prizes were awarded to the students.

(Prof. A. D. Sharma)

Head, Department of Psychology